How do you decide what type of grief groups to offer each year? Do you have groups for certain types of losses or different age groups? Do you have time limited groups with structured content, or do you have open ended groups? Do you have an effective process to screen the participants and train facilitators?

Learn how your agency can develop a group that will fill a care void in your community. Join Deb Pelletier, MSW, to learn how your agency can create and facilitate grief groups. Deb can share best practices and respond to your challenges in structuring groups to ensure a positive experience drawing on her twenty years of experience.

Objectives:

- This webinar will describe the various types of effective bereavement support groups.
- Determine the most effective group for your agency/community.
- Discuss tools to screen participants for closed grief groups.
- Recruit and oversee volunteers as facilitators.
- Achieve realistic goals while dealing with the challenges of group dynamics.

Presented by:

Deborah Pelletier, MSW, served as the Bereavement Coordinator for Home Health & Hospice Care, Merrimack NH for over twenty years and maintains responsibility for the weekly and monthly grief groups offered by the program. The program has grown over the years to now host 9 – 10 closed groups annually as well as monthly sessions offered to the public with an average of 20 – 30 attendees. Deb also trains and supervises the many hospice volunteers who assist as facilitators of these groups. Prior to this role, she was the Social Worker on the agency's Hospice Team.
